

Byblos Bank Honors Students Who Took Part In The 2018 Internship Program

Beirut, 27 February 2019 – Byblos Bank held a ceremony at its Headquarters in Ashrafieh to hand out Certificates of Completion to students who took part in the 2018 Internship Program. During the event, the Bank also rewarded interns who achieved a remarkable performance.

For the occasion, Mr. Elie Moussallem, Head of Talent Acquisition at Byblos Bank said, “The objective of the Internship Program is to provide university students with a real-life educational experience that would initiate them to the banking sector and related functions.”

Byblos Bank always strives to offer interns a unique experience through diverse initiatives meant to maximize the efficiency of the internship program they receive. These initiatives notably include participation in trainings and workshops designed to give interns a hands-on experience of the job, to help them make better career decisions, and to enhance the needed competencies for the banking sector.
